

The Company scarves have arrived and are ready to purchase!

These beautifully produced 100% silk scarves currently come in two colour combinations. One classic (red, navy and cream) to reflect the colours of our crest, and another more playful limited edition (this time in indigo, sage and cream).

The design itself is a homage to traditional City tailoring. It draws upon elements of the Company's crest, ensuring it's discreetly but very definitely "ours". Note the swords which make up the stylish diamond pattern in the body of the scarf. The Company's motto, Lex Libertatis Origo (Freedom's Foundation is the Law), also features proudly on its border.

Our rectangular scarf measures 9 x 54 inches, which makes it completely versatile - whether your preference is a drape, a knot or a more formal bow. Each scarf costs £15 (inclusive of VAT and UK P&P). Contact mail@citysolicitors.org.uk to place your order and remember to specify "Red" or "Indigo" or both!
