Engagement Survey Privacy Notice

The responsible controller for conducting this survey is The City of London Solicitors' Company, the Livery Company for City solicitors. The purpose of the survey is to gather views on the Company's events and other activities and to collect information about the diversity of its membership.

Any personal data gathered in the survey will be deleted within 12 months after completion of the survey, whilst aggregated and anonymised survey data and results will be kept for longer. Your participation in the survey is voluntary. If you decide to participate, your personal data will not be evaluated individually and we will ensure that you cannot be identified through the survey results which are published. The only individual who will have access to the raw data is the Company's Clerk.

We guarantee the confidential handling of your personal data in accordance with the GDPR. The legal basis for the data processing is Art. 6 (1) f) GDPR. The Company's legitimate interest is to identify ways in which it may improve its offering to its members and enhance its activities, as well as to establish a baseline against which to measure the impact of its equality, diversity and inclusion initiatives going forward.

If you have queries or concerns with regard to the survey or processing of your personal data, please contact the Company's Clerk at clerk@citysolicitors.org.uk.
